In Memoriam.

My little Mary; she is gone, In Heaven now reside her The Virgin's crown now she has on, And the Angels chant beside her.

To Heaven she has taken flight, Nor pain, nor sorrow meet her She is welcomed by the God of might, And the holy mother greets her.

To her I will ever pray

She is so bright in Heaven,

To ask the Saviour day by day, My sins may be forgiven. Now she is crowned for eternity With the Saints and Virgin Mary I hope she will e'er pray for me

And those she loved so dearly. But yet I hope again we'll meet, When my time on earth is over, Then bright before the Saviour's feet Through eternity I'll love her.

To James Ruddle & Co., Louisville, Ky. Gentlemen: This is to certify that I have bee for years a sufferer, and tried all the tonics nave heard of or seen advertised, with little on relief from any of them. I heard Hurley Bitters highly spoken of, and tried a bottle with little taith in it before I commenced, an to my surprise and joy, before I finished on bottle, I left a great deal better as d firmly believe that one or two occasions it was the lieve that one or two occasions it was the means of saving and prolonging my life. consciectiously recommend them to all suffer as the best Bitters known, and advise the always to ask for Dr. T. A. Hurley's an have no other. You can use this as you thin proper, if it will benefit others.

Yours truly, etc.

Ayer's H. LAYSON, Hair Vigor,

For the Renovation of the Hair.

The Great Desideratum of the Age. A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth.

Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable.

Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., PRACTICAL AND ANALYTICAL CHEMISTS, Critical Notices of the Press.

Harper's Bazar contains, besides picapatierns, etc., a variety of matter of escuse and interect to the family; articles on la dress, and housekeeping in all its brancheeditorial matter is specially adapted to the cle it is intended to interest and instruct;
it has, besides, good stories and interary m of merit. It is not sarprising that the jou

The Bazar is excellent. Like all the periodicals which the Harpers publish, it is almost ideally well edited, and the class of readers whom it is intended—the mothers and drug whom it is rulended—the mothers and dru ters in average fair les—can not but profit its good sense and good taste, which, we h no doubt, are to-day making very many hor happier than they may have been before women began taking lessons in personal household and social management from good-natured mentor—The Nation.

It has the merit of being sensible, of conve ing instruction, of giving excellent natterns every department, and of being well stock with good reading-matter.—Waighman of Reflector.

STANDARD PERIODICALS FOR 1870.

Republished by the Leonard Scot Publishing Co., New York. ispensable to all desirous of being well formed on the great subjects of the day.

1. The Edinburgh Keview. This is the oldest of the series. In its main atures it still follows in the path marked out y Brougham, Jeffrey, Sydney Smith, and ord Holland, its original founders and first patrimuors. The London Quarterly Review, SHELBYVILL chich commences its 128th volume with the amony number, was set on foot as a rival to the Edinburgh. It resolutely maintains its opposition in politics, and shows equal vigor in its 3. The Westminster Review has just closed its 92d volume. In point of lit-erary ability this Review is fast rising to a lev-el with its competitors. It is the advocate of political and religious liberalism.

4. The North British Review, position in periodical literature. Passing be youd the nurrow formalism of schools and par-ties, it appeals to a wider range of sympathic and a higher integrity of conviction.

5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine
